Land Assessments Under Challenge

Adjustments to land tax rolls, discussion concerning a complete new assessment for the county and a possible building permit program for the county dominated the Board of Supervisors' meeting this morning.

After several adjustments were made in the land tax rolls, Supervisor R. G. Hubbard said they would have to instruct the new assessor to make a new assessment. Hubbard said, "He's got to do it. We pay a tax assessor and an assistant to do this and they have to do the job. The board can't take responsibility for the job we pay the assessor to do."

In reviewing tax rolls, Hubbard noted a piece of property in Waveland was assessed at $2,000. He said, "The property should be assessed at eight to ten thousand."

Tax Assessor Claiborne J. Lader was called in and asked why the assessment was so low and if it had not been reduced. "Yes," Lader answered, "Buddy Dufour called me." "Who is Buddy Dufour?" Hubbard asked. Lader replied, "Dufour is tax assessor in Waveland and he told me they would reduce her tax. I told him I'd reduce her assessment to $2,000 but it would be subject to board approval."

"Well Claiborne," Hubbard said, "We can't have that kind of stuff." Hubbard told the board that other homes of approximately the same size were assessed at seven and eight thousand. On Hubbard's recommendation the board decision was to raise the assessment to $6,000 and take the matter up with the incoming assessor.

The board discussed the possibility of a building permit for the county and hiring a man on the fee system under penalty of fine for failure to collect. No decision was made on the permit question. Hubbard's argument for this system was that it would eliminate the present situation of people not applying for homestead exemption and then building expensive homes on which they pay little tax.

Three property owners received reductions and one was refused.

Mrs. D. N. Simms of Clermont Harbor appealed for a reduction from $500 assessment on her house on the grounds that neighboring property of much higher value has a lesser assessment. She was granted a reduction to $400.

Mrs. S. T. Assenheimer received a reduction from $2,000 to $1,600 on her property when she pointed out to the board by letter that her property assessment had not changed in 12 years.

A reduction of $200 was given Edgar H. Newell, from $700 to $500 on his house because neighboring property of higher value was assessed at a lower rate.

A verbal request by Henry J. Ritiyak to Hubbard was denied when Hubbard checked assessment rolls and found Ritiyak's property assessment to be in line with neighboring and like property.

CHEERS—Smiles wreath the faces of Gerald V. Price Sr., victorious candidate for sheriff, and some of his constituents at the Courthouse Tuesday night when primary returns disclosed his triumph at the polls.

Heitzmann, McCarty Are Victors

Hancock County joined the majority of the other Mississippi counties in Tuesday's second Democratic primary election and supported gubernatorial aspirant Ross Barnett and present State Tax Collector William Winner in his bid for re-election.

Barnett in his third attempt for governor led Hancock County with unofficial returns of 2,976 against his opponent L. Governor Carroll Gartin, who received 2,650 votes.

Staunch segregationist, Barnett said that he was going to put forth every effort to organize Southern governments to create and crystallize public opinion throughout the nation with reference to our traditions and Southern way of life.

Incumbent Winner, appointed to the job by Governor J. P. Coleman after the death of Mrs. Thomas Bailey, led the county with 3,309 votes against 2,034 votes for John Whitfield Birdsong.

One of the best paying jobs in the state, it nets an estimated $50,000 a year, largely from levies on liquor. The collector receives a percentage of the revenue taken in. The state has a black market tax on liquor although it is banned by law.

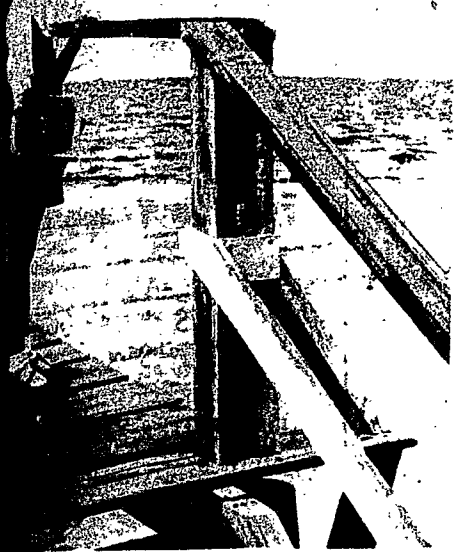

With the exception of the Pearl River, which the election managers had locked up with the tabulation sheet inside, the unofficial tally was completed about midnight Tuesday, well ahead of the time it took in the first primary with its long ballot.

In the race for the 40th Senatorial District seat, Henry W. Osoinach Jr. of Bay St. Louis carried Hancock County 3,447 to 2,068 for his opponent, former Senator Quintan Loft of Purvis, his last by 1,000 in the three county district.

Osoinach received 2,444 in Pearl River and 1,427 in Lamar to 3,361 and 2,794 for Loft, according to unofficial returns.

In the county-wide races about which the bulk of interest centered, Gerald V. Price Sr. nudged former State Highway Patrolman Fred Curet by a better than 200 vote margin, according to unofficial returns. In the only other two races which were decided in the runoff, the tax assessor's post went to George E. Heitzmann.

WELL, FOND SUMMER—Five-year-old Cindy Torgerson and her mother, Mrs. Harold A. Torgerson, 129 Terrace Waveland, will be in the first grade at Christ Episcopal Day School.

School Board Due on Bidding

Meeting devoted to trying to loose ends in the staffing of a new school, which begins tomorrow, occupied the Board of Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Nease of Rt. 1, Box 165, Pass Christian, were named janitors for the school after extended discussion. Trustee Keller commented that although Nease appeared the best man for the job, he was a brother of a member of the board and he felt obliged to vote against the applicant.

Mrs. McDonald voted yes on the motion by Murphy, seconded by Powell to approve Nease. Trustee Lugin Nease retired from the room during the discussion.

The board gave Webb a blanket order to move whatever equipment necessary from the unoccupied county school buildings to North Central. County Superintendent of Education E. E. Breland was instructed to notify the groups occupying the Kiln and Sellers buildings. Mrs. McDonald observed that the equipment was bought for school purposes and should be used in the new school.

Action was deferred until after school starts on having individual electric meters and gas tanks installed at the unoccupied school buildings.

City School Bids Called For Sept. 24

The Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School District board in special session Monday night formally accepted 2 p.m. Sept. 24 as the date for opening bids on three construction projects.

Charles Proffer and Bill Eason of Kuykendall and Proffer, architects and engineers for the new Dunbar Avenue elementary building, an addition to the Waveland School lunchroom, and an addition to Valena C. Jones School, concurred with the board.

Proffer said no more changes had been made in the plans already accepted by the board.

The authority of the state to set a time for the opening of the bids was questioned by Trustee Maurice Artigues who said that several of the members would have difficulty attending the required 2 p.m. session. But on the advice of attorney Sam Favre Jr., Artigues accepted the bid date and time and seconded the acceptance motion by Robert Hamilton.

Dates for the legal advertising were set for Aug. 27 and Sept. 3, 10, and 17.

Proffer said bid tabulations by his company would require several hours. He presented a file copy of the plans and specifications to the board with instructions that the copy was to remain in the office of Superintendent J. D. McCullough at all times.

Dr. W. P. Henderson presided.

After the Primary Reorganization Faces Board of Supervisors

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors will be reorganized when the new administration assumes office next January.

Beat 5 supervisor R. G. Hubbard and Beat 1 supervisor Charles Russ were the only two of the five county officials that were returned to office in Tuesday's second Democratic primary.

Hubbard defeated Fred Bourgeois 1,604 to 1,300 while Russ defeated Matt Miller 346 to 307 to retain their present positions.

Mrs. Frank Keller, Beat 2 supervisor, was defeated 243 to 215 by L. M. Frierson, Mrg.

Keller was elected to the board in 1956 to serve the unexpired term of her late husband.

Present board chairman Jack Lott, Beat 4 supervisor, received 447 votes to lose to James A. Nease who tallied 609 votes. Charles J. Lavinghouse received the committee nomination following the first primary election when his runoff opponent, Beat 3 Supervisor Johnson Shaw with drew from the race.

In other Beat 5 runoff contests Russell Elliott defeated Randolph Bourgeois for justice of the peace while former City policeman Arthur Pat Garcia defeated Herman Mazarakis the incumbent for Constable.

Two Are Arrested in Election Night Rukus

A teenager was hospitalized and two men were lodged in Hancock County Jail following a battle around 8 p.m. election day in front of the Hancock Bank, according to City Policeman Latham Garriga who investigated the rukus.

Billy Thornton, 18, was taken to Hancock County Hospital with chest injuries. He was treated and released. Joe Miller and Charles Miller were taken to Hancock County Jail and released after posting $25 bond each. The two will be tried before Justice of the Peace Nolan Lader on charges of fighting and disturbing the peace. Thornton was not charged.

Garriga reported that apparently the two Millers jumped Thornton, but he could not ascertain the cause of the fight.

Soil Conservation Stamp Goes on Sale

The Postoffice put on sale today the first soil conservation stamp ever printed and Soil Conservation District Commissioners from throughout the county were on hand to make first purchases.

Rapid City, South Dakota sold the first new four-cent stamps Wednesday, while the rest of the nation had to wait until today. Rapid City was chosen for advance sales because it is the annual meeting place of the Soil Conservation Society of America.

Board Will Meet

Board of directors of Bay-Waveland Garden Club will meet at 3 p.m. next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Paul Miller, president.

THIRD TERM—Taking time out from figuring election returns, reelected candidate for Beat 5 Supervisor R. G. (Manny) Hubbard waves to a crowd of well-wishers.

Clermont Water Consumers Seek Rehearing on Rates

Reiterating their earlier complaints over quality of service, a group of water consumers in Clermont Harbor Saturday night agreed to proceed with an appeal over the recent rate increase authorized by the Mississippi Public Service Commission for the Clermont Harbor Waterworks.

Garriga reported that apparently the two Millers jumped Thornton, but he could not ascertain the cause of the fight.

Col. P. S. Finn, attorney for the group, observed that the commission in granting the revised rates "lent a deaf ear to our appeal for better service."

One resident charged, "We have no pressure, fire plugs or a water tower. Some of these people can't get enough water on hot days to drink."

Others complained there is no water in the Clermont Harbor Waterworks.

None Hurt in 5 Car Pile-Up at Pearlington

Two collisions causing only property damage occurred Wednesday in the area.

A five car pile-up at 12:15 p.m. on White's Bayou Bridge near Pearlington occurred when a 1957 Chevrolet pickup truck driven by Gerald Anderson of New Orleans collided with the rear of a 1959 Ford station wagon operated by Harold Hespeth of Metairie, according to investigating officer William Kenny.

Kenny said the Hespeth auto collided with a 1958 Plymouth station wagon driven by Jesse Beeson of Long Beach, Calif., causing a chain reaction involving a 1957 Ford operated by Willie F. Godwin of Bay St. Louis and a 1955 Pontiac station wagon driven by Frank X. Surina of Dover, Del.

The eastbound autos had slowed down to allow a front car to turn off the highway when struck by Anderson, said Kenny.

Damages were estimated at $25, Surina; $700, Godwin; $400, Beeson; and $50, Hespeth. Anderson was charged with reckless driving, according to Kenny.

A truck carrying 22 New Orleans altar boys and a priest overturned about 7:50 p.m. at Pass Christian when it was struck by an auto at North and Henderson Streets.

The boys received cuts from broken glass and bruises and were apparently not seriously injured, according to a witness. The group was from St. Mary's Italian Church. The Rev. Vincent Liberto, pastor, said they had attended a picnic at a seminary near Pass Christian.

The three youths in the auto were reportedly students at the Harrison County Jail in Clarksburg.

To the Winners, Congratulations

Congratulations are always due to the winner. In any case he won. In a political contest, he did more. He received the confidence of his fellow citizens—something far more important than hitting a home run, scoring a touchdown or making a hole-in-one.

The Echo congratulates Hancock County's election winners. Naturally the paper hopes the voters chose wisely. Whether they did or not can never be known with certainty, since none of us can go up more than one road at a time.

Nevertheless, the voters chose, wisely or unwisely, and, if not wisely, 'tis their fault.

To the Losers

There are several well known quotations dealing with "It is not whether you win or lose but how you played the game" (Grantland Rice). Below is printed a poem by George I. Scarborough that we believe deals with the question better and in more detail.

Here's to the men who lose!
What though their work be o'er so nobly planned,
And watched with zealous care,
No glorious halo crowns their efforts grand;
Contempt is failure's share.

Here's to the men who lose!
If triumph's easy smile our struggles greet,
Courage is easy then;
The king is he who, after fierce defeat,
Can up and fight again.

Here's to the men who lose!
The ready plaudits of a fawning world
Ring sweet in victor's ears;
The vanquished's banners never are unfurled;
For them sound no cheers.

Here's to the men who lose!
The touchstone of true worth is not success;
There is a higher test—
Though fate may darkly frown, onward to press,
And bravely do one's best.

Here's to the men who lose!
It is the vanquished's praises that I sing,
And this is the toast I choose:
"A hard-fought failure is a noble thing!"
Here's to the men who lose."

A Needed Utility

The summer season has ended so in one sense the following suggestion is out of date. On the other hand, plans for a coming season require several months study. What about a bus route between Waveland and Bay St. Louis or perhaps Lakeshore—at least for the summer season.

Economically it may cost some money for either municipality, singly or combined, to finance such a system. This editor thinks it would materially and financially aid the Bay-Waveland area.

If legal, the Echo's suggestion is that two of the publicly owned school buses be run as a bus system during the period in the summer when school is out. Whether they run from Sears Avenue, Waveland, to Felicita Street, Bay St. Louis, or from Lakeshore to Main Street is a detail people more experienced than this editor would have to decide.

In any event, the area needs some public transportation—something the L & N never has performed and is not supposed to. Don't blame it.

"No Wonder They're Trying to Get Off"

Letters to the Editor . . .

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
Received the 30 July Echo today and also the 6 August issue and would first like to say that I enjoy the Echo very much. It helps me to keep in touch and gives me the latest on what's happening in the Bay.

How about expanding the sports section? I grew up with lots of the men playing in the softball league but I don't even know which team they play for. Also, how about some box scores of the games and resumes of some of the best games?

On the front page of your 30 July issue you show a man building a voting booth at the courthouse and the name listed is C. O. Crawford. Even though I haven't seen him in about a year, isn't the man building the booth my uncle, Givens V. Parker?

Would like to compliment you on the frank and informative discussion your paper presented a few weeks ago about the political aspirants. It is indeed unfortunate that the requirements for candidacy are so lax. Some of the candidates seemed to think that the only qualifications they needed was to have "many friends in Hancock County" or to be a veteran of some war (any war) and spent some time overseas or to be married and have several kids or some other "qualifications" completely irrelevant to the post to be filled. Fortunately, the voters of Hancock County looked deeper into the qualifications before casting their vote.

Now, for my problem. I am a registered voter of Hancock County and so is my wife. We have our absentee ballots ready to fill out but we don't have the official results of the first primary and it's only 5 days to election time. The only means we have of finding out is the Echo which comes to us by regular mail by boat and takes 8-20 days. (As you can see, we got the 30 July and 6 Aug. issue today, the 19th of Aug.) So it seems that we'll "lose" our two votes because of lack of time. I'm sure other members of the Armed Forces in other overseas areas are experiencing similar difficulties. Can you appeal to the County Democratic Executive Committee for all absentee voters? In the future, as soon as the first primary's results are official, have them AIR MAIL the official results to absentee voters so that they may have time to make a wise choice and still get the ballots to the polls on or before election day.

You have my permission to print any part of or all of this letter. Again thanks a lot for the Echo's service.

Sincerely
VERNON C. PARKER

EDITOR'S NOTE: Our reader is correct. The picture referred to was of Mr. Parker and not of Mr. Crawford.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
Your article and the picture in which the first Telephone Exchange was housed in Bay St. Louis was very interesting to me. That picture must have been taken before the building was partly occupied by the Telephone Company. The reason I say that is because the writer at the age of 16 was night switchboard operator; thereafter promoted to linesman and afterwards was manager of the Telephone Company at Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian and resigned to study law at the University of Mississippi.

In those years when the building was partly occupied by the Telephone Company there was a large telephone pole carrying all open wires that went into cables that fed into the Exchange. The pole sat at the corner of the building where I have indicated on the picture attached. That building was destroyed by fire the same night the church, convent and other buildings were destroyed. The Exchange thereafter operated temporarily in a small building at the head of Booker Street on the beach side of the front road. The Exchange was later removed to the Echo building at the time I was manager.

County Agent Notes

By Howard Simmons PASTURE LAND

In Hancock County where you want clover this fall, it will pay you to graze heavily during the rest of August and September. This will help get the bermuda out of the way so clover can come in.

White clover just will not survive in high bermuda.

Two other bermuda areas also need attention now. One is where you want frosted grass grazing in the late fall and the other is where you want winter peas. The area you want for frosted grass grazing should not be grazed this month or in September, unless the grazing is badly needed.

The area to be in winter peas or planted to winter peas should be grazed some, but not as much as the white clover areas.

It is time now to decide where you want the peas and to buy the seed. Two methods can be used to plant winter peas. One is to just sow them out on top of the ground, and the other is to put the seed in the soil with a seed seeder. Where the seed are put in the ground with the seed seeder use only half as much (30 to 35 pounds) of seed per acre as where they are sown on top of the ground.

SOIL TESTING

Now is the time to do some serious thinking about fertilizing the crops you will plant this fall. Among the crops are small grains (Cont. on Page 4.)

EVERYTHING—Everything was quiet Tuesday morning at Pearlington voting precinct where election managers during the first primary balloting. Mrs. Thomas, third from left, is the only member of the original group. From left, Mrs. Harlan Deas, Mrs. Wicher, and E. G. Kelly.

50 YEARS—A. H. Moeller of Hickory Lane receives congratulations for 50 years service from E. P. Kirkpatrick who received his 50 year award last spring and James O. Norwood, worshipful master of Bay St. Louis Lodge 429 F and A M, who made the presentation for the lodge, Houston, Texas, Tuesday night.

Romanoff Reports on Legion Convention

The national convention of the American Legion and its local chapters in the twin cities of St. Paul, Minn., last week, reported an outstanding success to Gordon C. Romanoff, representative of the Hancock County Post 139.

Romanoff attended also, as a delegate of the auxiliary, which was born and raised in the city and was back in the city, representing the city of Mississippi.

He reported back home on the convention. Romanoff wrote: "The first Legion activity was on Thursday, August 20, when it was Legion."

Commander Wendell Craft showed fine statesmanship. Commander Craft's delicate maneuvers at the convention thwarted some actions which were very undesirable to Mississippians.

"Montana had its earthquake but they were only half-bad-off. St. Paul had the 40 & 8 wreck, casualties were few and damages minor but St. Paul will long remember 'The Big Wreck'." As in the case of the Legion, Mississippi was well represented, not only by fun makers but by able statesmen in Legion politics.

"Tense feelings at times at the Auxiliary part of the Convention was ably assuaged by the national president, Mrs. Gus. The finesse displayed by the ladies showed just how slick politics can be (Legionnaires take notice). Sky Mississippi delegates were anything but shy. The National Auxiliary is well aware that Mississippi is a part.

"Distinguished guests were so plentiful that it was no problem to rub shoulders with Governors, Senators, Congressmen and lesser lights. Generals and Admirals were a dime a dozen, lowly ex-G. I.'s or Gobs could not only rub shoulders with the big, big brass - but could judge them as well.

"Attendance and participation in official Legion business was not exhausting, but the entertainment furnished here used up the remaining energies. A booklet was given to each registering. Parties, theatres, dances, refreshments, tours, rides, contests, exhibits and shows were all free by coupons in the booklet. P. T. Barnum would have been proud to have organized such an extravaganza."

Lizana Completes Army Motor Course

Specialist Four Thomas L. Lizana, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph F. Lizana, R. 1, Pine Christian, recently completed the motor sergeant course at the Army European Engineer-Ordinance School in Munster, Germany.

The 24-year-old soldier, an automotive-vehicle repairman in the 54th Ordnance Co. in Badersleben, Germany, entered the Army in January 1957 and was stationed at Fort Polk, La., before arriving in Europe in February 1958.

He was graduated from St. Joseph High School in 1954.

LOOKS GOOD, DAD—Carl Garcia, deputy sheriff, congratulates his father and gives him the latest returns as word came that Arthur (Pat) Garcia had won the Best 5 constable post.

THE GOVERNOR—Ross Barnett, who Tuesday carried Hancock County and the state on his third try for the chief executive's post in Mississippi, is pictured with Dan M. Russell Jr. during a visit to Bay St. Louis during his campaign.

WELL DONE—Herbert Shiyou, second vice commander of Hancock County Post 3253, Veterans of Foreign Wars, congratulates Carl Moran Jr. who spoke to the group on the 4-H Club Congress recently held at Mississippi State University. The local post sponsored Moran to the congress where he won several honors.

mann while K. G. McCarty was for superintendent of education. Veteran law enforcement officer Price received 2,848 votes to 2,605 for Curet in the Sheriff's race.

Heltzmann, deputy in the tax assessor office for 12 years, led with 2,925 votes for the position against Sylvester Moran, who received 2,634.

McCarty, a former superintendent of education led by 1,000 votes with 3,394 to 2,177 for Robert Frank Lader, former principal for Gulfview School.

Ordinary balloting took place in the county's 25 precincts as some 5,625 voters went to the polls. This is approximately the same number of voters as in the first primary Aug. 4.

The County Democratic Executive Committee went into session at 10 a.m. today to begin its official canvass of the vote, opening the Pearlington box first. A fast and orderly session indicated the tally would be completed late this afternoon or early Friday.

OUTLINE WATER APPEAL—Col. P. S. Finn, center, outlines procedure for appeal from Public Service Commission's approval of higher water rates in Clermont Harbor to members of the Clermont Harbor Civic Association Saturday night. At left is Leonard Lader, association president, and Mrs. J. P. Rousseau, secretary.

VACATIONERS—These people having their ups-and-downs at the beach while on vacation in Bay St. Louis, are, from left, Mrs. Carlo Pisciotta of New Orleans; Daniel, 7, Dennis, 7, and Steven, 8, sons of Mr. R. B. Caywood, Smyrna, Ga., far right, Chris, 7, and Lisa, 5, daughters of Mrs. Pisciotta whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Piazza of Bay St. Louis.

JUDGE RETURNS—Best 2 Justice of the Peace, C. W. Branson upon receiving word of his re-election to that office gets the congratulations of Lowell Frierson and Cornelius J. Lader, local attorney.

foreign matter in the water and therefore it is unsafe to drink. Finn remarked there has never been a chemical analysis made of the water, adding that while a sample was sent to the PSC, there is no way of knowing whether or not it was examined.

Finn and Leonard Lader, president of the Clermont Harbor Civic Association, outlined the procedure for an appeal to about 35 persons attending the civic group's meeting at the community school building.

On the motion of Joe Meyer, it was voted to apply for a rehearing of the case before the PSC with expenses under $50 to be paid by the association's treasury. Bertrand Lader seconded the motion which was amended provide for petitioning by the residents in opposition to the rate hike and service.

Finn was directed to draw up the petition and a meeting was called for 8 p.m. Saturday to begin a canvass to secure signers. It must be completed by Labor Day weekend, it was explained. The petition is to be annexed to the brief submitted for rehearing.

Methods of protest to the PSC ruling were discussed extensively. In one instant, Finn was asked if it would be possible to argue that the waterworks' attorney, Walter J. Phillips, was prejudiced in the matter because he is a member of the state legislature. Finn replied that Phillips was acting as a lawyer and not a representative in this matter, adding, "besides, he lost the election."

The PSC has authorized, retroactive to May 1, a $5.25 increase in the annual water rate, placing it at $21.25 with a $6.50 installation or resumption of service charge.

THANKS

THANKS TO ALL THE PEOPLE OF HANCOCK COUNTY FOR THEIR FRIENDSHIP, COURTESIES, HELP AND VOTE EXTENDED ME DURING MY CAMPAIGN FOR STATE SENATE.

HENRY W. OSOINACH, JR.

THANKS

I want to thank all those who expressed their confidence in me by voting for me on Tuesday.

In person I will try to thank as many as I can.

Herman Mazarakis

TO THE PEOPLE OF HANCOCK COUNTY

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the voters of Hancock County who took part in electing me your county Superintendent of Education on August 25th. I hold no ill will toward my opponent or his supporters. I will endeavor to work courageously to make Hancock County's school system one of the best in the state.

Thanks again,

Emergency

*What do you do
when you can't wait?*

WHEN A CRISIS COMES

... and you need a prescription filled
at midnight

... or your plumbing starts leaking

... or your car won't start

... or you run out of clean shirts

... or when the cupboard or the baby is bare

DO YOU saddle up and take a day off to get the matter taken care of in the City, or do you write to a catalog house for help?

OF COURSE NOT. Likely you hardly recognize these and similar predicaments as crises.

Because YOU'VE GOT NEIGHBORS, right here at home ... with their skill and their money invested in establishments able to take most of your troubles on their own shoulders so quickly that you scarcely notice they are difficulties at all.

But HOW MANY skilled craftsmen, and good business men, and good neighbors, and good workers in civic and church affairs, and good taxpayers
... how many of these have cut down their stocks, laid off employees, or left the country ... because all you were buying from them was the things you couldn't wait to get somewhere else
... and how many will leave in the future to go where your money is going?

*It Pays to Buy
where you Live*

school buildings. Breland was instructed to put only 100 pounds of gas in the tanks if they run empty before final action is taken. Breland stated he had authorized 100 pounds for the Kiln School because teachers are living there when it became dry last week. The board stated it could no longer be responsible for the gas and electricity and meters would have to be established in the individual's name occupying the property.
A bid from Brown Velvet Marketing Corp. of Piquette was accepted after the three bids submitted were found to all quote the same price of six cents per one-half pint and 90 cents per gallon of milk. Others bidding were Newman-Cobb Dairy Products of Gulfport and Borden Co. of Biloxi. Webb was instructed to request a two per cent discount if payment was made by the 10th of the month.
Mrs. Bernesia Arcement was approved to replace Elvin Lee as fourth grade teacher at North Central and Webb was instructed to fill the vacancies of social studies teacher and high school English and librarian temporarily until the board could grant approval.
Cherrie Green, former bookkeeper in the Superintendent's office who resigned last week to be married, was presented a silver serving tray by Mrs. McDonald on behalf of the board.
Mrs. Wallace V. Jeanfreau, office secretary, was promoted to bookkeeper and Kathy Allison was approved as office secretary.

Long-Time Theology Professor Leaves St. Augustine Seminary

Member of the faculty at St. Augustine's Seminary here for 29 years, the Rev. John Kemper, S.V.D., will leave this week for Tuckey, Ill., where he will continue his teaching of theology and canon law at the Divine Word Seminary there.

His teaching assignments here have been assumed by the Rev. Robert Fitt, S. V. D., of Sharon, Pa., a young Divine Word Missionary recently returned from the Gregorian University in Rome.

Father Kemper came to the Bay St. Louis seminary as a young priest in August, 1930, after being awarded the doctorate of sacred theology at the Gregorian

University. His subsequent work as a professor of moral theology, pastoral theology and canon law at the major seminary here has been widely praised.

He also taught German and Latin in the minor seminary, and for two years, from 1950 to 1952, was Master of the Brother Novices here. For a number of years he gave valuable aid to the Natchez-Jackson Diocese as a member of the diocesan matrimonial court.

Father Kemper is a native of Enkhansen in Westfalen, West Germany. He was born Sept. 19, 1903, and was ordained Sept. 9, 1928, at the Divine Word Seminary in Rhineland, Germany.

Here Are Some Signs of Growth in Hancock County

Tennessee Gas Ansley Station Due to Open in September

The Tennessee Gas Transmission Corp. is planning to open its new Ansley station in Hancock County in September. The station is the largest of a series of new stations being built by the company to expand its gas pipeline system in the Southeast.

playing a number of local residents, includes a 40x120 foot compressor building which houses four compressor engines, rated at 2,000 horse-power each. Installation of these engines is now under way.

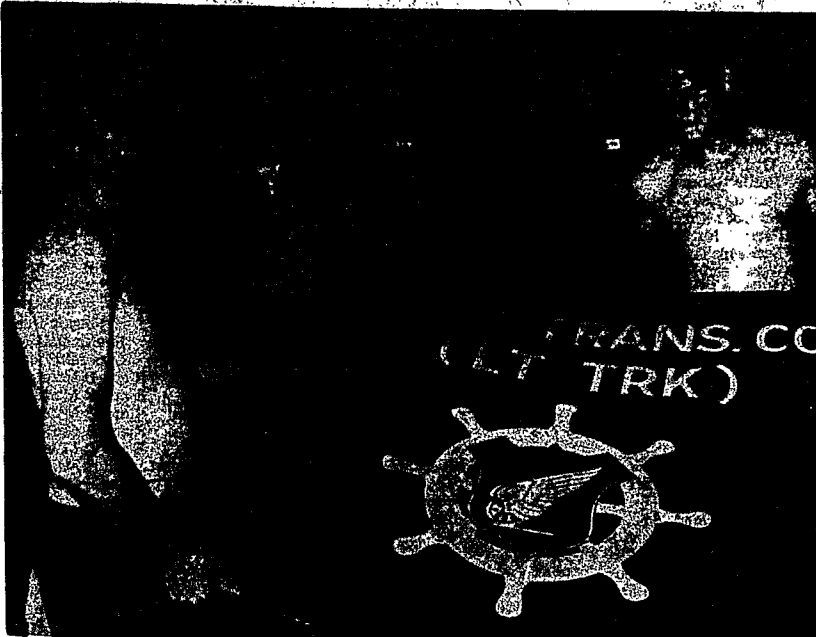

There is a 40x64 foot combination utility and office building while nearby is an equipment area and garage measuring 24x48 feet. All structures are of corrugated asbestos siding and fireproof.

The company's entire program calls for installation of 113,100 horse-power units for the pipeline system in four new compressor stations, of which Ansley is one, and enlargement of 13 existing stations.

The station will work on a 30-inch diameter line which extends 556 miles from south of New Orleans to Portland, Tenn., where it connects with the main Tennessee Gas line serving the Northeast.

In addition to construction at the station site, the company has under contract seven residences in Waveland to house its personnel. O. H. Williams will be superintendent of the station operations.

Guard Moves Equipment Into Kiln Road Armory

The local National Guard company, commanded by First Lt. Irvin Kingston had its last all day drill in the old armory Sunday as equipment was moved to the new armory on the Kiln Road.

Dedication of the new $90,000 structure is scheduled for October, Kingston said. Constructed of brick, cement and concrete block the building will house equipment for the 134th Light Truck Co. valued at over $100,000. Kingston said this includes arms, ammunition, trucks, communications equipment, clothing, classroom aides and kitchen furnishings.

In Sunday's drill truck after truck was loaded at the old armory and equipment was transported to the new one. After a noon meal at the old armory, work resumed and by late afternoon the move was complete.

Lt. Kingston said all meetings from now on will be at the new armory. He listed his company strength at 87, which, he said, is full. "However," Kingston added, "a new ruling by Adj. Gen. W. P. Wilson allows us to take on new recruits."

Small Business Meeting Stated At Georgia Tech

Mississippi business firms interested in bidding on government contracts are invited to attend this year's only Small Business Opportunity meeting and exhibit for the south at Georgia Tech in Atlanta on Sept. 17, according to Morris Lewis, Jr., Indianapolis, president of the Mississippi Economic Council.

Officials of the Small Business Administration notified the MEC-State Chamber of Commerce of the meeting, with the request that any industry or firm interested be invited. The meeting will be similar to the one held in Jackson last year.

Accepts Bid

Commission Council in a brief meeting Monday morning accepted Sea Coast Echo's bid for printing for the year Aug. 24, 1959, to Aug. 24, 1960. This was the only bid submitted and the council adjourned without transacting any other business.

KEEP IT CLEAN—After a five-year wait the local National Guard unit finally got its own armory. It's a nice place, but it takes a lot of broom pushing as demonstrated by Pvt. Zack Blackwell to keep it nice.

State Tax Office Honors 52 Changes in Homestead Figures

All of the 52 adjustments on Hancock County Homestead Exemption Application Allowances made by the State Tax Commission have been honored by the Board of Supervisors, according to Clerk of Courts A. C. Mitchell.

The adjustments are to be paid at the time of regular tax payments at the first of the year and applicants will receive notice of their required payment from the sheriff, Mitchell said.

H. P. Taylor, chief of the homestead exemption division of the commission notified Mitchell that the notices of the adjustments were made with recapitulation of charges assigned to each taxing unit involved.

Taylor explained 1956 and 1957 adjustments were included and made because material facts were either concealed or misrepresented on the application and correct information was not available at the time the application was originally audited.

Adjustments and reasons for change are as follows:

1956: Carl Baldenhofer, allowed $160, charged back $160, not legal resident of state; Dr. James F. MRS. THOMAS WILLIAM KIDD

St. Clare's Church Scene Of Kidd-Auderer Wedding

The Rev. M. J. Costello was celebrant at a nuptial mass at 11 a.m. Saturday at St. Clare's Catholic Church, Waveland, which united in marriage Miss Linda Ann Auderer of Waveland, and Thomas William Kidd of Bay St. Louis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fred Auderer Jr. and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Earl Kidd. The double ring ceremony took place before an altar decorated with caladium leaves, fleur de amour and large daisies. Baskets of palms were placed at the entrance. Because of the large bride party only the couple, the maid of honor and best man were at the altar after the ceremony and the other attendants knelt along the communion rail during the mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in an original gown of lace and starched nylon net in alternating tiers which formed a full skirt ending in a chapel train and studded with seed pearls. The waistline was fitted to the hips and the bodice was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. A tulle of organza appliques and seed pearls held in place her illusion veil. Her only jewelry was a necklace of tiny seed pearls and she carried her missal topped with a white orchid and showered with fleur de amour.

Miss Barbara Kidd, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor with the Misses Vicky Fournet, Peggy Kargoske, both of Bay St. Louis; Linda George of Long Beach and Kay Lavocchia of Vicksburg as bridesmaids. Miss Lillian Davis of Waveland was junior bridesmaid.

They were attired in floor-length gowns of ice green French silk with cummerbunds of emerald green tulle forming bouffant backs and emerald green velvet tiaras and tiny veils. They carried bouquets of white caladium leaves with feathered carnations and fleur de amour and each wore an inscribed bracelet, a gift of the bride.

Mr. Kidd had as his best man the bride's brother, J. F. Auderer III of Waveland. Groomsmen were Edmund Fahey, Kenny Artigue, Sheldon Seizeneau, Walter Cox III, all of Bay St. Louis, and Jerry Rigby of Albuquerque, N. M. The ushers were Alfred Garie of Waveland and New Orleans, Jerry Chapman of New Orleans and the bride's uncle, Sterling Balaski of Bay St. Louis.

Some 500 guests attended the reception afterwards at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club where palms interspersed with arrangements of caladium leaves, fleur de amour and daisies decorated the rooms. A handsome lace cloth applied with figures of angels covered the bride's table which was centered with the tiered wedding cake.

The bride's mother received in a peau de soie gown of pearl gray with inserts of French lace, her mauve velvet hat was trimmed with nylon net and velvet and she wore a purple orchid at the shoulder. The groom's mother was in an aquamarine lace fashioned on princess lines with a white feathered hat and fleur de amour at the shoulder. Mrs. Sterling Balaski, paternal aunt of the bride, was in royal blue peau de soie with a beaded velvet hat and cymbidium orchids at the shoulder.

When the couple left afterwards on their wedding trip to Florida, the bride was wearing a beige and white linen suit with a feathered beige and brown hat, bone shoes and bag and white orchid at the shoulder. Upon their return they will be at home at 1922 Port Street, Apartment A, New Orleans.

Mrs. Kidd, formerly of New Orleans and a resident of Waveland for the last four years, attended St. Dominick's grade school and Dominican College there, graduating from St. Joseph's Academy in Bay St. Louis. She attended Mississippi Southern College where she was a member of Phi Mu sorority.

Mr. Kidd, a native of New Orleans, attended St. Stanislaus College and Mississippi Southern College and is now associated with Auderer Dental Co. of New Orleans.

Among those were from out of town for the wedding, in addition to those listed last week, were Mrs. Joe Tuccet, Mrs. Fred Dix, both of Biloxi; Joe Parrillo of Norco, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tuccet of Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Raymond III, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Prest, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Quintini and Mrs. T. A. Quintini, all of New Orleans, and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Heines of Slidell.

Four WMU Members Attend House Party

Four members of the Woman's Missionary Society of Waveland Baptist Chapel attended a house party sponsored by Woman's Missionary Union of Mississippi at Camp Garaway in Clinton Aug 21-23.

Attending were Mrs. John D. Green, Mrs. Mary Penalver,

Cherie Green Becomes Bride of Donald Murray

Miss Cherie Ann Green, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Leon T. Green of Bay St. Louis, became the bride of Donald Lee Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Murray of City Island, New York, in a double ring ceremony at 11 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

The Rev. Kevin Reid officiated before an altar decked with two large vases of summer flowers with baskets of palms on either side.

Miss Veronica Mohr sang several selections during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Norman J. Green, was attired in a gown of imported handclipped scalloped lace, the beautiful skirt over antique taffeta and tulle. The bodice dipped to a V at the waist and swept out in fullness with panels of scalloped lace extending down the front and back of the skirt. Her veil was held in place by a lace cap trimmed with pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of lilacs of the valley and centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Ronald Maurigi was matron for her sister. Other attendants were Mesdames Norman Green and Lawrence Choina of New Orleans, sisters-in-law of the bride; Marjorie Hall of Biloxi, and Miss Mary Frances Lacher.

They were in draped bodices with circled floor length skirts silk organza over taffeta. Their headpieces were of pale blue tulle with pearl trimmed crushed bands to match the dresses. The honor attendant's gown was of a darker shade of blue than those of the other attendants. Their flowers were cascade bouquets of pale yellow carnations.

L. (J.) John O'Laughlin of Endicott, N. Y., was best man for Mr. Murray. Groomsmen were Lt. Comdr. Ken Thomas, Lt. Comdr. Thomas Cuddy, Lt. Gus Leahy and Lt. Mark Byrd, all of Pascagoula.

The swordsmen were Comdres. Richard Gappy, William Loomis, James Wish and Lt. Comdr. John Foster, all of Pascagoula.

Ushering were Frank J. Murry of New York City, brother of the groom, and Lawrence A. Choina of New Orleans, the bride's brother.

The Knights of Columbus Hall was the scene of the reception afterwards. Palms formed the background for the decorations. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Peter Strumetta of Biloxi, aunt of the bride, who was in a lace dress with a white orchid at the shoulder, and the groom's mother who was in a beige sheath of silk organza over silk with pearls and sequins at the neckline and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Murray chose for her going away outfit a two-piece brown suit with matching accessories and a hat of brown, green and burnt orange velvet leaves, adding the orchid from her wedding bouquet at the shoulder.

The couple will reside in Cincinnati, Ohio, on their return from a wedding trip.

The bride was graduated from Bay High School in 1951 and was employed for the last eight years in the office of the Hancock County superintendent of education, Mr. Murray is a graduate of New York Maritime College and until recently was on active duty with the Navy as assistant inspection officer with the supervisor of shipping at Ingalls Shipbuilding Corp.

Miss Favre Is Betrothed To William Scarborough

Announcement is being made by Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Louis Favre of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jane Favre, to William Charles Scarborough, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Alton Scarborough.

The wedding will be solemnized Oct. 3 at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

Miss Favre is a graduate of St. Joseph's Academy and is now employed as a bookkeeper at Ramsey's Department Store. Her fiancé is a graduate of St. Stanislaus College and received his BS degree last spring from Mississippi Southern College. He is now with Hunz Process Co., Jackson.

The first of a series of pre-nuptial parties honoring Miss Favre will take place Tuesday evening when Mesdames Charles Flink and Ernest Strong entertain at the former's home with a shower.

Miss Seuzeneau Feted at Tea In New Orleans

MISS JANE FAVRE

Miss Jeannine Dennis Seuzeneau, bride-elect of Donald Eugene Legarde Jr., was honored yesterday when the Misses Josephine Casacchia of Canonsburg, Pa., Lyvia Yunker and Martha Aiken of Tampa, Fla., were hostesses at a tea and bridal shower in New Orleans.

Arrangements of white gladioli and small chrysanthemums were used throughout the living and dining rooms. A lace hairroom cloth belonging to Miss Seuzeneau's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Joseph Reme Barrios, was used on the dining table with white tapering candles in silver candelabras.

Pouring were the honor guest's mother, Mrs. George L. Seuzeneau Jr., Mrs. Hugh Taylor Campbell and Miss Juanita Barrios. Tea girls were the Misses Dennis and Vallon Seuzeneau.

Relatives and close friends of the bride-elect were invited to call during the afternoon.

Edward Porter.

The night circle will meet at 8 p.m. that day at the home of Mrs. C. A. Breath Jr. Members are urged to bring aprons for the sale in October.

Church Women Due Conference Report

The women of Christ Episcopal Church will hear a report by the Rev. Charles R. Johnson and Ripple Rausch on the summer conference when they hold their general meeting at noon Tuesday in the parish house. Hostesses for the occasion will be Mesdames Harold Weston and

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Poirier had as their guest last week Mrs. Adrienne Dumas of New Orleans.

WE'RE HERE TO STAY

Unlike the big food chains and highway discount stores, we stock thousands of drugs and chemicals, ready to provide you with the type of health service you and your physician expect. We've studied Pharmacy, believe in providing you with carefully compounded prescriptions, and plan to stay in this business of being a part of your health team - for years to come.

You may buy a few items cheaper miles away at a highway store, but we are justifiably proud of our day-in-day-out service that you can depend on.

Patronize us now - and be doubly sure that when any medical emergency arise we, as a part of your community, will be here ready to serve you.

Dear Driver:

Today my seven year old daughter, Susan, started her second year of school. She could hardly wait for this day to come. She enjoys school, every minute of it. She loves her teacher. She loves her schoolmates. She loves life. In life awaiting her.

By 7:30 she was dressed in a little blue jumper and white sandals, ready for this first day adventure to unfold. At 7:45 I received my goodbye kiss and wished her a "happy day". "Honey," I reminded, "remember, stay on the sidewalks and carefully watch 'both' directions for cars at the intersections." "Sure, I will, Mom," she responded and off she went skipping through the blond pony tail bouncing happily up and down.

Her safety is now in your hands. Please drive carefully. You know how unpredictable a child can be. My words of caution can be completely lost in the excitement of chasing a butterfly or rushing to meet playmates across the street. Susan, like every other child, can forget that streets even exist and dart from behind a parked automobile for no reason at all.

You wouldn't hurt her, would you? Please drive carefully. You can never guess what a child will do. Please don't run over my little girl.

Pleadingly,
A Loving Mother

Farewell Party Jeanie Rutherford Reigns At Poppy Coronation Ball For Piji White

Lorraine deMontuzin entertained this afternoon with a skating party in compliment to Piji White, who is leaving early next month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul White, to make her home in Stamford, Conn. Contemporaries of Piji who were invited to share the occasion included Sharon Griffin, Dale Russell, Jan Oestrich, Becky Adams, Mary Perkins, Maureen Quigley, Gail Koch, Janie Brown and Creedy Clay, both of Long Beach, Janie Baren of New Orleans, and Kaye Thomas of Gulfport.

Mrs. Satterlee Notes Birthday
 Mrs. H. W. Satterlee was honored on her birthday Sunday with a champagne dinner. Celebrating the occasion with her were her husband, three sons, Steve, Gerard and Paul; and two daughters, Mrs. Milton Munch and Mrs. Carlo Michel, and families all of New Orleans; 18 grandchildren; and Lee Lowe of Bay St. Louis. Mrs. Satterlee was given an orchid corsage by her family.

Births
 Mr. and Mrs. Edward Soffra, a son, Edward Jr., born Aug. 12 at Hancock County Hospital. Mrs. Soffra is the former Miss Dugan of Brookhaven. The couple also has two daughters and another son.
 Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pratt of 785 Ballentine St., a daughter, Donna Michele, born Aug. 25 at Hancock County Hospital. Mrs. Pratt is the former Miss Claire Ramond.
 Mr. and Mrs. Malvin Ladner, a girl, their first child, born Aug. 25 at Gulfport Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Ladner is the former Miss Eunice Moran.

WOW Circle Fotes Patients from VA
 The Woodmen of the World Circle was hostess for the monthly entertainment for patients at the Gulfport Veterans Administration Hospital Tuesday at the Youth Center, held under auspices of the Hancock County Red Cross chapter.
 Mrs. Anna Palmisano, president of the circle, was in charge. Those assisting her included Mesdames Lena Henry, Rose Betz, Leonine Zeigler, Clara Scherer, Elizabeth Bounin, May Colson, Louise Healy, Marie Bouleib, Rubel Boudage and George Ladner.
 Entertainment was provided by Rita Kay Erwin, Dottie Nell Kausch, Mary Toni Ladner, Joy Peterson and Dale Russell, all pupils of the Russell School of Dancing. The patients also enjoyed singing to piano accompaniment and a number of games. Refreshments were served during the afternoon to the 28 veterans attending.

Mrs. Oiestad Has Visitors
 Mrs. Marion Oiestad of Julia Street has had as recent guests her niece, Miss Mary Hodgins who stopped over en route home from a motor trip through Florida and her nephew, Norman Hodgins, Mrs. Hodgins and children from New Orleans. Mrs. Oiestad and Mrs. Alice Bierboist were in Montgomery, Ala., for several days recently to visit Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Hodgins.

Emergency

*What do you do
when you can't wait?*

WHEN A CRISIS COMES

- ... and you need a prescription filled at midnight
- ... or your plumbing starts leaking
- ... or your car won't start
- ... or you run out of clean shirts
- ... or when the cupboard or the baby is bare

DO YOU saddle up and take a day off to get the matter taken care of in the City, or do you write to a catalog house for help?

OF COURSE NOT. Likely you hardly recognize these and similar predicaments as crises.

Because YOU'VE GOT NEIGHBORS, right here at home . . . with their skill and their money invested in establishments able to take most of your troubles on their own shoulders so quickly that you scarcely notice they are difficulties at all.

But HOW MANY skilled craftsmen, and good business men, and good neighbors, and good workers in civic and church affairs, and good taxpayers . . . how many of these have cut down their stocks, laid off employees, or left the country . . . because all you were buying from them was the things you couldn't wait to get somewhere else . . . and how many will leave in the future to go where your money is going?

*It Pays to Buy
where you Live*

Long-Time Theology Professor Leaves St. Augustine Seminary

Member of the faculty at St. Augustine's Seminary here for 29 years, the Rev. John Kemper, S.V.D., will leave this week for Turkey, N.Y., where he will continue his teaching of theology and canon law at the Divine Word Seminary there.

His teaching assignments here have been assumed by the Rev. Robert Fitz, S. V. D., of Sharon, Pa., a young Divine Word Missionary recently returned from the Gregorian University in Rome.

Father Kemper came to the Bay St. Louis seminary as a young priest in August, 1930, after being awarded the doctorate of sacred theology at the Gregorian

University. His subsequent work as a professor of moral theology, pastoral theology and canon law at the major seminary here has been widely praised.

He also taught German and Latin in the minor seminary, and for two years, from 1950 to 1952, was Master of the Brother Novices here. For a number of years he gave valuable aid to the Natchez-Jackson Diocese as a member of the diocesan matrimonial court.

Father Kemper is a native of Enkhausen in Westfalen, West Germany. He was born Sept. 19, 1903, and was ordained Sept. 9, 1928, at the Divine Word Seminary in Rhineland, Germany.

Howard Completes Engineer Course

Army Pvt. James M. Howard, 19, son of Mrs. Basil Wood, R. 1, Picayune, completed the engineer equipment maintenance halper course Aug. 14 at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Howard was trained to assist in the repair and maintenance of tractors, graders, bulldozers, air compressors and chain saws. He entered the Army in April of this year and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

LaRose Participant in Coast Exercise

Patrick J. LaRose, damage controlman second class, USN, son of Mrs. John G. Dupre of 111 Webb Ave., and husband of the former Mrs. Anna E. Schaus of Philadelphia, Pa., participated in the West Coast's annual Sea Fair Parade, Aug. 6, aboard the

Deaths

Ralph Hoda

Final rites were Monday morning in Gulfport for Ralph Hoda, 45, Kila resident who died at 12:25 a.m. Sunday at Memorial Hospital, Gulfport.

A lifelong resident of Hancock County, he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Della Hoda of Kila; two brothers, Delmar Hoda, Washington, D. C., and Polemon Hoda, and a sister, Miss Angelina Hoda both of Kila.

Funeral services were held at the Catholic Church with burial in Rotten Bayou Cemetery.

Religious rites were at Fenton Navy stores ship USS Regular, in which ships of the U. S. First Fleet entered Elliott Bay, at Seattle, Wash., in formation.

Here Are Some Signs of Growth in Hancock County

Tennessee Gas Ansley Station Due to Open in September

Tennessee Gas Transmission Corp. is planning a number of local residents, includes a 40x120 foot compressor building which houses four compressor engines, rated at 2,000 horse-power each. Installation of these engines is now under way.

There is a 40x64 foot combination utility and office building while nearby is an equipment area and garage measuring 24x48 feet. All structures are of corrugated asbestos siding and fireproof.

The company's entire program calls for installation of 113,100 horse-power units for the pipeline system in four new compressor stations, of which Ansley is one, and enlargement of 13 existing stations.

The station will work on a 30-inch diameter line which extends 556 miles from south of New Orleans to Portland, Tenn., where it connects with the main Tennessee Gas line serving the Northeast.

In addition to construction at the station site, the company has under contract seven residences in Waveland to house its personnel. O. H. Williams will be superintendent of the station operations.

COMPASS DRILL—With the aid of Sergeant First Class Truman Schultz, Second Lt. Thomas Bourgeois instructs members of the 134th Light Truck Co. in the compass and map reading. This was the last class held at the old armory before its move to its new home.

Guard Moves Equipment Into Kiln Road Armory

The local National Guard company, commanded by First Lt. Irvin Kingston had its last all day-drill in the old armory Sunday as equipment was moved to the new armory on the Kiln Road.

Dedication of the new $90,000 structure is scheduled for October, Kingston said. Constructed of brick, cement and concrete block the building will house equipment for the 134th Light Truck Co. valued at over $100,000. Kingston said this includes arms, ammunition, trucks, communications equipment, clothing, classroom aides and kitchen furnishings.

In Sunday's drill truck after truck was loaded at the old armory and equipment was transported to the new one. After a noon meal at the old armory, work resumed and by late afternoon the move was complete.

Lt. Kingston said all meetings from now on will be at the new armory. He listed his company strength at 87, which, he said, is full. "However," Kingston added, "a new ruling by Adj. Gen. W. P. Wilson allows us to take on new recruits."

Small Business Meeting Stated At Georgia Tech

Mississippi business firms interested in bidding on government contracts are invited to attend this year's only Small Business Opportunity meeting and exhibit for the south at Georgia Tech in Atlanta on Sept. 17, according to Morris Lewis, Jr., Indianapolis, president of the Mississippi Economic Council.

Officials of the Small Business Administration notified the MEC-State Chamber of Commerce of the meeting, with the request that any industry or firm interested be invited. The meeting will be similar to the one held in Jackson last year.

Accepts Bid

Commission Council in a brief meeting Monday morning accepted Sea Coast Echo's bid for printing for the year Aug. 24, 1959, to Aug. 24, 1960. This was the only bid submitted and the council adjourned without transacting any other business.

KEEP IT CLEAN—After a five-year wait the local National Guard unit finally got its own armory. It's a nice place, but it takes a lot of broom pushing as demonstrated by Pvt. Zack Blackwell to keep it nice.

State Tax Office Honors 52 Changes in Homestead Figures

All of the 52 adjustments on Hancock County Homestead Exemption Application Allowances made by the State Tax Commission have been honored by the Board of Supervisors, according to Clerk of Courts A. C. Mitchell.

The adjustments are to be paid at the time of regular tax payments at the first of the year and applicants will receive notice of their required payment from the sheriff, Mitchell said.

H. P. Taylor, chief of the homestead exemption division of the commission notified Mitchell that the notices of the adjustments were made with recapitulation of charges assigned to each taxing unit involved.

Taylor explained 1956 and 1957 adjustments were included and made because material facts were either concealed or misrepresented on the application and correct information was not available at the time the application was originally audited.

Adjustments and reasons for change are as follows: 1956: Carl Baldenhofer, allowed $160, charged back $160, not legal resident of state; Dr. James F. MRS. THOMAS WILLIAM KIDD

St. Clare's Church Scene Of Kidd-Auderer Wedding

The Rev. M. J. Costello was celebrant at a nuptial mass at 11 a.m. Saturday at St. Clare's Catholic Church, Waveland, which united in marriage Miss Linda Ann Auderer of Waveland, and Thomas William Kidd of Bay St. Louis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fred Auderer Jr., and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Earl Kidd. The double ring ceremony took place before an altar decorated with caladium leaves, fleur de amour and large daisies. Baskets of palms were placed at the entrance. Because of the large bridal party only the couple, the maid of honor and best man were at the altar after the ceremony and the other attendants knelt along the communion rail during the mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in an original gown of lace and starched nylon net in alternating tiers which formed a full skirt ending in a chapel train and studded with seed pearls. The waistline was fitted to the hips and the bodice was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. A tulle of organza, appliques and seed pearls held in place her illusion veil. Her only jewelry was a necklace of tiny seed pearls and she carried her nuptial topped with a white orchid and showered with fleur de amour.

Miss Barbara Kidd, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor with the Misses Vicki Fouert, Peggy Kergosien, both of Bay St. Louis; Linda George of Long Beach and Kay Lavecchia of Vicksburg as bridesmaids. Miss Laine Davis of Waveland was junior bridesmaid.

They were attired in floor-length gowns of ice green French satin with cummerbunds of emerald green taffeta forming bouffant backs and emerald green velvet tiaras and tiny veils. They carried bouquets of white caladium leaves with feathered carnations and fleur de amour and each wore an inscribed bracelet, a gift of the bride.

Mr. Kidd had as his best man the bride's brother, J. F. Auderer III of Waveland. Groomsmen were Edmond Fahey, Kenny Artigue, Sheldon Seuzeneau, Walter Cox III, all of Bay St. Louis, and Jerry Rigby of Albuquerque, N. M. The ushers were Alfred Serio of Waveland and New Orleans, Jerry Chapman of New Orleans and the bride's uncle, Sterling Balaski of Bay St. Louis. Some 500 guests attended the reception afterwards at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club where palms interspersed with arrangements of caladium leaves, fleur de amour and daisies decorated the rooms. A handsome lace cloth applied with figures of angels covered the bride's table which was centered with the tiered wedding cake.

The bride's mother received in a peau de soie gown of pearl gray with inserts of French lace, her mauve velvet hat was trimmed with nylon net and velvet and she wore a purple orchid at the shoulder. The groom's mother was in an aquamarine lace fashioned on princess lines with a white feathered hat and fleur de amour at the shoulder. Mrs. Sterling Balaski, paternal aunt of the bride, was in royal blue peau de soie with a beaded velvet hat and cymbidium orchids at the shoulder.

When the couple left afterwards on their wedding trip to Florida, the bride was wearing a beige and white linen suit with a feathered beige and brown hat, bone shoes and bag and white orchid at the shoulder. Upon their return they will be at home at 1922 Port Street, Apartment A, New Orleans.

Mrs. Kidd, formerly of New Orleans and a resident of Waveland for the last four years, attended St. Dominics grade school and Dominican College there, graduating from St. Joseph's Academy in Bay St. Louis. She attended Mississippi Southern College where she was a member of Phi Mu sorority.

Mr. Kidd, a native of New Orleans, attended St. Stanislaus College and Mississippi Southern College and is now associated with Auderer Dental Co. of New Orleans.

Among those here from out of town for the wedding, in addition to those listed last week, were Mrs. Joe Tucci, Mrs. Fred Dix, both of Biloxi; Joe Parrillo of Norco, La., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tucci of Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Raymond III, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Prest, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Quindini and Mrs. T. A. Quindini, all of New Orleans, and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Heines of Slidell.

Four WMU Members Attend House Party

Four members of the Woman's Missionary Society of Waveland Baptist Chapel attended a house party sponsored by Woman's Missionary Union of Mississippi at Camp Garaway in Clinton Aug 21-23. Attending were Mrs. John D. Green, Mrs. Mary Penalver,

Cherrie Green Becomes Bride of Donald Murray

Miss Cherrie Ann Green, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Leon T. Green of Bay St. Louis, became the bride of Donald Leo Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Murray of City Island, New York, in a double ring ceremony at 11 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

The Rev. Kevin Reid officiated before an altar beamed with two large vases of summer flowers with baskets of palms on either side.

Miss Veronica Mohr sang several selections during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Norman J. Green, was attired in a gown of imported handclipped scalloped lace, the bouffant skirt over antique tulle and tulle. The bodice dipped to a V at the waist and swept out in fullness with panels of scalloped lace extending down the front and back of the skirt. Her veil was held in place by a lace cap trimmed with pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of lilacs of the valley and centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Ronald Maurigi was matron for her sister. Other attendants were Mesdames Norman Green and Lawrence Cholina of New Orleans, sisters-in-law of the bride; Marjorie Hall of Biloxi, and Miss Mary Frances Ladner.

They were in draped bodices with circled floor length skirts silk organza over tulle. Their headpieces were of pale blue tulle with pearl trimmed crushed bands to match the dresses. The honor attendant's gown was of a darker shade of blue than those of the other attendants. Their flowers were cascade bouquets of pale yellow carnations.

Lt. (j.g.) John O'Laughlin of Endicott, N. Y., was best man for Mr. Murray. Groomsmen were Lt. Comdr. Ken Thomas, Lt. Comdr. Thomas Cuddy, Lt. Gus Leahy and Lt. Mark Byrd, all of Pascagoula.

Two swordsmen were Comdrs. Richard Guppy, William Loomis, James Wish and Lt. Comdr. John Foster, all of Pascagoula.

Ushering were Frank J. Murray of New York City, brother of the groom, and Lawrence A. Cholina of New Orleans, the bride's brother.

The Knights of Columbus Hall was the scene of the reception afterwards. Palms formed the background for the decorations. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Peter Skrimets of Biloxi, aunt of the bride, who was in a lace dress with a white orchid at the shoulder, and the groom's mother who was in a beige sheath of silk organza over silk with pearls and sequins at the neckline and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Murray chose for her going away outfit a two-piece brown suit with matching accessories and a hat of brown, green and burnt orange velvet leaves, adding the orchid from her wedding bouquet at the shoulder.

The couple will reside in Cincinnati, Ohio, on their return from a wedding trip.

The bride was graduated from Bay High School in 1951 and was employed for the last eight years in the office of the Hancock County superintendent of education. Mr. Murray is a graduate of New York Maritime College and until recently was on active duty with the Navy as assistant inspection officer with the supervisor of shipping at Ingalls Shipbuilding Corp.

Miss Favre Is Betrothed To William Scarborough

Announcement is being made by Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Louis Favre of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jane Favre, to William Charles Scarborough, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Alton Scarborough.

The wedding will be solemnized Oct. 3 at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

Miss Favre is a graduate of St. Joseph's Academy and is now employed as a bookkeeper at Ramsey's Department Store.

Her fiancé is a graduate of St. Stanislaus College and received his BS degree last spring from Mississippi Southern College. He is now with Hunt Process Co., Jackson.

The first of a series of pre-nuptial parties honoring Miss Favre will take place Tuesday evening when Mesdames Charles Flink and Ernest Strong entertain at the former's home with a shower.

WE'RE HERE TO STAY

Unlike the big food chains and highway discount stores, we stock thousands of drugs and chemicals, ready to provide you with the type of health service you and your physician expect. We've studied Pharmacy, believe in providing you with carefully compounded prescriptions, and plan to stay in this business of being a part of your health team - for years to come.

You may buy a few items cheaper miles away at a highway store, but we are justifiably proud of our day-in-day-out service that you can depend on.

Patronize us now - and be doubly sure that when any medical emergency arise we, as a part of your community, will be here ready to serve you.

Dear Driver:

Today my seven year old daughter, Susan, started her second year of school. She could hardly wait for this day to come. She enjoys school, every minute of it. She loves her teacher. She loves her schoolmates. She loves life. In life awaiting her.

By 7:30 she was dressed in a little blue jumper and white sandals, ready for this first day adventure to unfold. At 7:45 I received my goodbye kiss and sidewalk and carefully watch "both" directions for cars at the intersections. "Sure, I will, Mom," she responded and off she went skipping through the blond pony tail bouncing happily up and down.

Her safety is now in your hands. Please drive carefully. You know how unpredictable a child can be. My words of caution can be completely lost in the excitement of chasing a butterfly or rushing to meet playmates across the street. Susan, like every other child, can forget that streets even exist and dart from behind a parked automobile for no reason at all.

You wouldn't hurt her, would you? Please drive carefully. You can never guess what a child will do. Please don't run over my little girl.

Pleadingly,
A Loving Mother

Two happy couples off for a day's outing on the scenic, historic Natchez Trace! . . . And, though they may live blocks apart, or cities apart, they got together so easily . . . by telephone.

Yes, your phone helps you enjoy life more... it keeps you in touch with friends and neighbors; takes a lot of the run out of running a home... The more you use it, the more it's worth to you!
